

FROM GOLF THAT SWINGS TO WINE THAT SINGS

Boost your swing on the green on one of the most beautiful golf courses in Switzerland and savour an enchanting moment in this elegant Domaine & Château of the 18th century.

A light breeze of prestige blows through this sport which fascinates many of us and titillates our curiosity with a game that has so much to teach us. If a sudden urge to work your swing takes you, here you will receive the full attention of a professional golfer, who will be keen to coach you against the backdrop of a resplendent landscape.

In this splendid place, which combines the refinement of a historic hotel with the atmosphere of a family home, enjoy an aperitif or a meal on the terrace. It will be a fulfilment to cross off your bucket list. With their breath-taking view of the snow-capped summit of Mont-Blanc or the green, all the rooms are discreetly elegant, with classic decoration that preserves their original authenticity.

As prestigious as golf, are the wines of this beautiful region, no fewer than twelve production areas. You will discover some of them by tasting and visiting one of the winegrowers, who has put all his heart into creating fine and balanced wines that brings a lot of freshness to the palate, or other varieties, richer, fruity, or spicy bouquet, full-bodied with characteristics. All of this, accompanied by local products which will surprise on the palate with their finesse.

So, meet you on the green for a sporting and tasteful experience!
